

A monolithic media kills democracy. Citizens have the right to hear and express a wide range of opinions -- free speech is the essence of what makes America great!